

National Association of Social Workers

The NASW Register of Clinical Social Workers, 13th Edition, (Copyright © 2005, National Association of Social Workers, Inc.) is available free for online searchers to find qualified clinical social workers. You may search the Register by specialty, city, state, zip code, or name. The NASW Register of Clinical Social Workers provides a listing of clinical social workers that have met national standards for education and experience established by the NASW Competence Certification Commission.

The NASW Register provides a listing of clinical social workers that meet verified uniform national professional criteria. It also facilitates improved inter- and intra-professional referrals and consultations to accommodate individualized treatment planning sensitive to diagnosis, preferred treatment modality, cultural issues, and geographical locations. NASW has verified the credentials and education for every individual listed in the NASW Register.

To find a social worker in your area, visit www.socialworkers.org/register/default.asp. Then in the right hand navigational field, click the link marked, “National Social Worker Finder; Search for a Licensed Social Worker.”

Clinical social workers listed in the 13th edition of the Register have given permission to have their listings included on the Web.